

Case Study | Sydney University Law Library

Case Study | Sydney University Law Library

Project Outline

Client:
University of Sydney - Faculty of Law

Project Name:
University of Sydney - Faculty of Law

Architect:
Francis-Jones Morehen Thorp

Main Contractor:
Baulderstone Pty Ltd

Furniture Supplier:
Precision

Project Year
2009

Project Description

Following an international design competition firm were commissioned to design the new Faculty of Law for Sydney University "...an elegant & spacious structure that cannot fail to inspire our academic staff, administration and students. A functional and beautiful environment respects those who use the spaces and motivates all who work in the building". Professor Gillian Trigg (Dean, Sydney Law School).

Precision shelving was supplied by Dexion Office Australia into this successful project.

